

Tampa Bay Triple Threat Theatre (TBTTT) is a non-profit organization in residence at Mary Jo's Performing Arts Academy. Our mission is to promote and encourage the advancement of education and cultural development of the performing arts by creating, furthering and producing opportunities for the youth of our community regardless of age or background. In an ongoing effort to continue our vision, TBTTT regularly partners with local artists, Bay area schools and community sponsored events. Research proves that participation and exposure to the arts contributes to the overall success of our youth. TBTTT's goal is to provide the vehicle for the arts to enhance our youth's development.

Ticket sales for our productions cannot cover all of the costs associated with delivering exceptional artistic, educational and community programs. We rely on contributions from individuals, corporations and public agencies to sustain our programs today and to ensure our future. Your tax-deductible donation will help us to continue to make a difference in children's lives.
